Thanks Peggy — the sooner we enter it, the better.

I'll see what can be done.

Really? They can't just be entered into the record? This ex parte took place weeks ago - and we've already issued the order. It can't just be entered?

Sure--Remember Ex Parties take a little longer because they have to be placed on Public Notice.

Hi Peggy,
I slid an ex parte from C&W for the Philippines docket (03-38) under your door last week. The British embassy would like to know when it appears in the docket - could you please let me know?

Thanks,
Lisa
